

TEENS AND MARIJUANA . . .

Are you up-to-date on the emerging marijuana trends? Can you spot the signs and symptoms of use? Parents and educators are invited to participate in a FREE four part seminar exploring the issue of teens and marijuana. Come learn from the experts in our community about: current marijuana trends; signs and symptoms of abuse; available treatment resources; and, issues surrounding legalization/medical marijuana.

Please feel free to bring a brown bag dinner to the seminars.

Dates: Thursday evenings, February 9th, 16th, 23rd, & March 8th

Time: 4:15-7:15 p.m.

Place: Renaissance High School Auditorium
1307 E. Central Drive
Meridian, ID 83642

Professional Development Credit Available Through NNU

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED!

SEATING IS LIMITED

TO REGISTER, PLEASE CONTACT:

Beau Lachance,
blachance@cityofboise.org or (208)570-6405

Program Schedule

Feb. 9: Treatment/Resources

- Delmar Stone, National Association of Social Workers

History and Trends of Marijuana Use/Abuse in Idaho

- Bill Lutz, Drug Enforcement Administration

Feb. 16: Legalization/Medicinal Marijuana

- Monte Stiles, Retired Assistant U.S. Attorney

Feb. 23: Signs, Symptoms, and Indicators of Marijuana Abuse

- Jermaine Galloway, Boise Police Department

Mar. 8: Love & Logic – Helping Parents/Teachers Raise Responsible Kids

- Sarah Dunn, Riverglen Jr. High School

Community Resource Fair

- Featuring Counseling, Intervention and Treatment Providers

Class content consists of lecture by professional experts, video presentations, discussion, and question/answer period following each seminar.

Classes will be held in Renaissance High School's Auditorium from 4:15 - 7:15 p.m.

Professional development credit available through NNU. Registration must be submitted prior to February 8th, 2012.

For more information on how to register, please see the contact details below.

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED, PLEASE CONTACT:

Beau Lachance

DrugFree Idaho, Inc.

blachance@cityofboise.org or (208)570-6405